TWENTY EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YR B

Freedom to Live Life Fully. 28th Sunday Year B.

The quest for God and for eternal life is something many of us believers aspire to and yet attachment to various objects of human desire stand in the way of our progress. The gospel reading of this 28th Sunday in ordinary times, Year B, (Mark 10:17-30) tells the story of a very rich man, who came running to Jesus, and asked him, “Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus, seeing through his heart, and knowing how attached he was to his possessions, asked him to “let go and let God”. But, the man, who had no difficulty keeping the commandments, which are mostly avoidances, “though shall not” found this act of doing something for those in need too much to behold, fell into depression, and left, very sad. He was so clung to his riches that his hands were so tied up and not free to be extended for giving.

Hearing this story, our minds may drift off to the rich and famous, but that would be hypocritical because it is about all of us. If you go to “Globalrichlist.com” and enter your yearly income, it will surprise you as you find out that you rank in the upper 25% of those richer than 99% of the world’s population. So, this parable is most likely about us, because it is about hoarding, grabbing, selfishness, lack of compassion, ill-disposition to share, self-centeredness, etc. It is about our desire for eternal life but not being willing to do what it takes to achieve it. It is about attempting to self-justify ourselves into the kingdom of heaven.

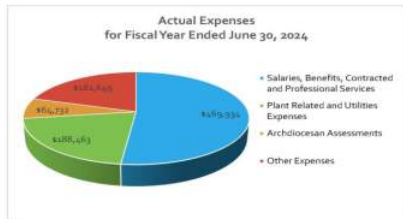

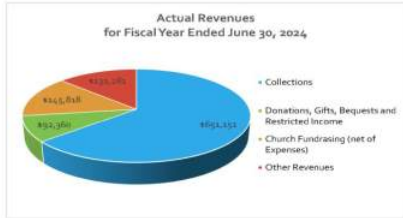

The question is this: What is much more important to me than eternal life? What am I not willing to give up for the sake of the kingdom of heaven? How do things like pleasure, appetite, family, friends, sense of independence, selfishness, pride, ego, wealth, position, power, etc. stack up against my need for blessedness? True life, my friends, is not about what we have acquired, but about how we live, who we help, and what we have given that others may grow. What matters most in life is the role I have played in the well-being of others. We need to use whatever stuff we have on this earth to become a distributive channel of God’s grace and blessing to humanity. What God has blessed us with should never become a banded to happiness or a stumbling block to eternal glory. As a friend also says, “If material things are what you’re talking about when you say, “I am blessed”, You have no idea what a blessing is”. May the good Lord grant us a graceful appetite for eternal life. Amen.

ST. MICHAEL'S FEAST

The parish family of St. Michael's Church and the many volunteers of the Social Events Committee and its sub-committees namely G.I.F.T. (Grown in Faith) team, FAC (Family Activities Committee), Coffee and Fellowship Sunday Team would like to thank everyone who supported and participated in our events despite the challenges with the weather conditions.

We gratefully acknowledge the members of our choir and the adoration band for the many hours of preparation in putting together a beautiful musical concert for the church community.

A very special thank you to Rey and Jonelle Seide for the very tedious task of beautifully and elegant setting up the Phil Matrale Hall (LC) for the dinner and fellowship after the concert. Most importantly, for freely feeding everyone with a sumptuous dinner. On behalf of the church community, we immensely thank you for your selfless dedication and generosity!

As I recall our past weekend's events, I am overjoyed and I thank God for the outpouring of support and help from many volunteers who wholeheartedly offered their time and ensured the success to our events. From selling dinner/cruise tickets, giving out ice cream, helping kids get on the ride during the festival, serving at the dinner and many more ... no job is too small. Thank you, thank you!

Lastly to our CYO team and leaders, we thank you so much for all your assistance.

May God continue to shower you and your family with His blessings!

"Give and gifts will be given to you ...
the measure with which you measure will in turn be measured out to you." Luke 6:38

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

MILLENNIALS WITH CHRIST (MWC)

Join Us for Fellowship and Faith!

Attention all parishioners aged 25-40! We invite you to connect with fellow young adult Catholics in our community through Millennials with Christ (MWC). Our mission is to inspire and empower each other to live out our faith boldly and authentically, fostering a vibrant Catholic presence among our peers.

As Jesus reminds us in Matthew 22:37-40 (NLT):

"You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment.

A second is equally important: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'"

Let's come together to embody these teachings in our lives and in our community.
